

EL CAMINO PREPARES FOR VJC

Warriors Try to Salvage Disastrous Conference

By GARY PALMER

El Camino, its Metro title hopes shattered several weeks ago, travel to Valley JC Saturday night in search of their second conference win, after dropping number four to Mickey Flynn and his Long Beach teammates, 28-13 last week on the Warrior gridiron.

The Vikings took a 7-0 first quarter lead, going 66 yards in nine plays, with Vic Gausepohl, LB halfback scoring from the four to cap the drive. Dan Wasnick kicked the first of his four conversions, and the Vikings were never headed.

INJURED PLAYER . . . Back in the lineup after an arm injury which was expected to keep him out of action for the remainder of the season is Center Dick Keolor, who demonstrates his skill with Quarterback Larry Manly. The pair will start for the El Camino College Warriors Saturday night at Van Nuys against Valley College.

previous Warrior score and halftime found Long Beach still on top, 7-0.

Mickey Flynn, flashy Vike halfback, took the second half kickoff and rambled 85 yards through the entire Warrior defense for the second Long Beach touchdown.

The Camino eleven bounced right back, going 67 yards in six plays, with Gordon Henderson capping this drive with a 38 yard blast over the center of the Norse line. Billy Reames' conversion attempt was wide.

The third Long Beach score came late in the third quarter, when the Vikings intercepted a Larry Manly pass on the EC 17 yard line, and after three plays found the ball still on the 17. Wasnick threw to Charles Leonard on the Camino one, and the next play Wasnick went in for the score.

In the final period, Long Beach took advantage of a fumbled punt on the Camino 33. Gausepohl picked up six yards and Flynn scampered the remaining 27, to close out the Vikings scoring.

The final score of the evening came with only 40 seconds remaining. Flynn heap took a four yard, down aerial from Lynn Hoyem, climaxing an 83 yard drive. This time Reames' conversion was good.

The Warriors recovered a fumble 30 seconds late on the Long Beach 20, but the gun sounded before they could get another play off.

TALL/SHORT OF IT . . . Big Russ Vanderpool, who stands 6-4, stands with little Phil Scholl, 5-4, on the Torrance High hardwood. Both are seniors and will probably be in Coach Marty Pelka's starting lineup Friday afternoon when the Tartars host Newport at 3:00.

Tartar Cagers Meet Newport in Opener

By BILL SCHIPPER

Stepping into the local sports spotlight with the grid season over is Torrance High's new basketball coach Marty Pelka and his 1957-58 varsity and jayvee cage squads who open their year of play Friday hosting Newport on the THS hardwood at 3:00.

Hoping to start the season off on the right foot with double victories over the visiting Tars, the homebreds have high hopes of repeating or bettering last year's 9-3 Bay League record which qualified them for the CIF playoffs for the first time in the school's history.

Leading the Tartar attack will be big Gene Crenshaw, aided by sharpshooters Dale Mead, and Ray and Russ Vanderpool. All are returning lettermen from last year's crew.

With plenty of height and rebounding strength, the THSers should give all of the foes listed on their schedule a heap of trouble.

Giving the outfit depth are Lee Day, Harlan Treskes, Phil Scholl, and Paul O'Kain, along with Dan Plante, Ray Beadle, Dave Skinner, Bill Johnson, and Charlie White.

Looking sharp on the jayvees with their speed, hustle, and determination are Gerald Sherburne, a flashy junior who has spent two years with the Bee and Cee teams, Bob Church, the teams only returning letterman, and John Sandstrom, Bill Williams, Mike McCusker, Ken Robinson, and Jerry Juvet.

CONCRETE USE
Almost 24 million tons of concrete were used during the construction of the Grand Coulee dam that straddles and uses the famed Columbia river.

Three THS Linemen Head First Team All-Bay League Players

Three Torrance High linemen head the first team All-Bay League football selections recently announced by Coach Dick Turner of THS. Tackle Steve Foster, center Jim Wallace, and end Harold Davis were all picked to the first team by the six head coaches of the Bay League schools.

All seniors, the trio played brilliantly throughout the season and were main reasons why the Tartars completed one of their most successful years of grid play in the school's history.

Only THSer to land on the second unit was the team's captain and guard, Kenny Hall, who was one of the league's most spirited athletes during the recent season.

Santa Monica, the undefeated champions of the loop, landed four players on the first team and three more on the second crew. Inglewood placed three and Leuzinger and Mira Costa each had one player on the first squad. Only school to not land a player on the first team was Redondo.

The Tartars also had five men on the honorable mention list, with quarterback Ron Veres, halfbacks Roger Reed and Butch White, and linemen Bob Curran, Bob Van Calcar.

- The selections are:
- First Team

Sports Arena

Financing of the new Sports Auditorium at Exposition park by the County Employees Retirement Board as a means of speeding construction was urged today by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn who pointed out that the project would also give the Retirement Board a substantial return for its investment.

"Final plans for this important project are now being reviewed by the County Engineer and bids could be advertised very shortly if financing is made available immediately," Supervisor Hahn declared.

He pointed out that any further delays in building the Sports Auditorium would send construction costs higher and higher.

HAPPY FELLA . . . Lou Bailey, 2027 W. 233rd St., has a right to be a "happy fella" because he won two tickets to the UCLA-USC football game by being top guesser in The HERALD'S Sunday football contest. A former football player for the University of Arizona, he is shown receiving his tickets from Vonda Carlton, of The HERALD sports department. Bailey also won a year's membership at the Cal Gym. Two Warrior Teams Score Victories

The Bowl-O-Drome Warrior's Pee Wee and Midget teams rolled to impressive victories over their opponents in Torrance Park this week end.

The Midgets blanked the Sea Aire Hawks, 27-0, to remain the only undefeated, unscored upon team in the conference.

On the second play, the Warriors scored on a pass from Terry Greason to Newell Robinson. Damon Wisham on a right end run accounted the second six points. Robinson came back in the third quarter to rack up another touchdown pass and the final tally came when Michael Lee and Tommy Hood recovered a fumble in the end zone.

The Pee Wees outshone the Dagos 21-6 in their tilt.

An interception by Steve Wirtz set up the first Warrior TD over the tally. Chuck McIntosh ran 60 yards in the second quarter for another six points.

Tom Standley returned the pigskin 63 yards for the third score. The lone Dago score came with three minutes left in the game. Cicchini scored the first touchdown against the Warriors this year on a 20-yard run.

WEIGHT FACTOR
The number of still-births among overweight women is almost twice as great as among women of normal weight, medical studies have indicated.

Bowlers Enter Finals Here Saturday

Finals in the National Men's All-Star Eliminations will be rolled Saturday night at the Torrance Bowl-O-Drome lanes.

Local residents are urged to be on deck at 8 p.m. in order to view the Southland's finest bowlers make a last effort in the regional contest.

Weekly league results at the Bowl-O-Drome saw the Seeman Photo Studio and Marine Sheet Metal teams tie for the lead in the 850 scratch league. Season highs are carried by G. OShea with a 683 series and C. Nelson who has top game of 279.

Men's Commercial Handicap currently sports a high series by L. King, 699, and a high game of 186 by W. Baxley. Mehning and Hanson is two games ahead of the Elks no. 2 team.

A. Williams with a 643 series and E. Duncan with a 245 game currently hold the edge in the ladies Tuesday Handicap.

B. Lindsay with a tremendous 704 series and M. Millford who has a 286 game are high scorers in the Tuesday Men's Handicap.
